

Marable originally sued only the Gibson County Correctional Complex in Trenton, Tennessee. He subsequently filed a motion to supplement the pleadings and to demand a jury. (ECF No. 5.) Marable's motion to supplement is actually a motion to amend in order to name some of the individuals referenced in the complaint as additional Defendants. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(1), a party is entitled to amend a complaint once as a matter of course. Therefore, the motion to amend is GRANTED. The Clerk shall add the following persons as Defendants: Lieutenant Nick Milan, Lieutenant

First Name Unknown (FNU) Kelly, Lieutenant Christine (Christy) Combs, Twila Claybon, Dakota Hicks, and FNU Jordan.

Marable's motion also includes a demand for a jury, which was not made in the original complaint. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b)(1), a jury demand must be made within fourteen days after service of the last pleading. As no Defendant has yet been served in this case, no responsive pleadings have been filed. Therefore, Marable's request is timely. Accordingly, the motion to demand a jury trial also is GRANTED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
